Compliance Criteria

1. Interpretation

For the purposes of this criteria, unless the context otherwise requires –

“Substantial transformation” means Imported inputs or two or more items, each coded of four digits on the Harmonised Commodity Description and Coding System which upon manufacturing or processing will result in the finished good that is substantially different from the original by virtue of a change to the classification of the goods in its first four digits for the Fiji Standard Tariff based on the Harmonised Description and Coding System.

2. Conditions for Use of Emblems

The Licensee shall only use the emblem with one or more of the following representations if the conditions set out hereafter are satisfied.

(a) “Fijian Product”

- i) all significant components must originate from Fiji; and
- ii) all, or significantly all, processes involved in the production or manufacture of the goods must be conducted in Fiji.

(b) “Fijian Made”

- i) The good must be substantially transformed through a change in tariff heading.

(c) “Fijian Sewn”

- i) The good must be substantially transformed through a change in tariff heading.

(d) “Fijian Assembled” or “Fijian Packed” or “Fijian Designed”

- i) Processes such as preservations, cutting, packaging, labeling, mixing and assembly.

(e) “Fijian Crafted”

- i) All handicraft which use as its major components locally sourced materials that are weaved, crafted, and stringed to depict authentic Fijian craft.

(f) “Fijian Grown”

- i) All products that are obtained in an unprocessed state such as fruit and vegetables and products harvested and obtained by hunting and fishing.

(g) “Fijian Organic”

- i) All produce or products grown or processed in Fiji are to be certified with the Pacific Organic Guarantee Scheme standards or any international standard.
